

2021 Education Council Elections

Run. Serve. Lead.

Apply for a Seat on a New York City Education Council

Community and Citywide Education Councils (CCECs) offer important advice to the Chancellor and NYC Department of Education.

CCEC work includes:

- Hosting town halls with the Chancellor
- Advising on education policies and improvements to school buildings
- Collaborating with superintendents to improve student achievement
- Deciding on zoning lines and consulting on school co-locations

As the parent of an NYC public school student, you have the expertise we're looking for!

For detailed information on Community and Citywide Education Councils and the upcoming elections, visit:

schools.nyc.gov/elections2021

